Dayara Bugyal : The Fairy Meadow Season : Mar- Jun and Sep – Feb

| | |

| Per Person | INR 9000.00 |
|-------------------|--------------------|

Dayara Bugyal falls within the two most beautiful high altitude meadows in India, hotly contested with the Bedni Bugyal in Chamoli district of Uttarakhand. For hundred of years shepherds from far have been taking their flock to graze at Dayara. They have come back with stories of the abundance of grass and splendor of the mighty Himalayan mountain peaks cradling the meadows. The mountains they talked about were the Bhagirathi peaks, Bandarpunch, Black peak and scores of other peaks they could not name. This trail takes adventure enthusiasts to some of the scenic open lands and thick forests, ending at a vast region of lush green meadow. In winters the area receives heavy snowfall and the whole region is covered by a thick blanket of snow. As a result, the endless meadows turned into snow dunes makes an ideal spot for skiing.

The virgin landscape provides many opportunities for photographers as Dayara Bugyal looks different from every angle. Hence, the ideal short trek in the Himalayas with such beauty and the local untouched culture of the nearby villages makes this a perfect trek for beginners.
