Dharamshala - The High snow clad Dhauladhar ranges form a magnificent backdrop to the hill resort of Dharamshala. With dense pine and deodar forests, numerous streams, cool healthy air, attractive surroundings and the nearby snowline, Dharamshala has everything for a perfect trek. It is full of life and yet peaceful.

BIR - The charming Indian town praised by visitors from all corners of the earth for its natural beauty. Bir is situated in the foothills of the Indian Himalayas in the Kangra District of Himachal Pradesh, amidst paths winding through tea gardens into the forests and mountains to the north. The greater Bir area is famous for seasonal waves of paragliders and other outdoors enthusiasts

PARAGLIDING AT BIR -

Paragliding is the recreational and competitive adventure sport of flying paragliders: lightweight, free-flying, foot-launched glider aircraft with no rigid primary structure.

**Bir is regarded by international paragliding groups as the second best site in the world for paragliding (after Lake Como in Italy). **

The launch point is at approximately 2400 metres (7874 feet) in the meadow on the top of a ridge at Billing (14 km north of Bir), and the landing area is in the fields at the western edge of the Tibetan Colony in Chowgan.
